SHORT CUTS IN STATE NEWS

The Latest News From All Over the State

HAPPENINGS OF THE WEEK

Roanoke.—Leonard C. Ferguson, 24 years old, a fireman on the Norfolk and Western Railway was instantly killed when the automobile he was driving was hurled over an embankment in Roanoke county about two and one-half miles from Poage's Mill.

Hampton.—Monday, April 28, was selected by the Elizabeth City County Democratic Executive Committee as the date for holding a county convention in the Hampton courthouse to select delegates from Hampton, Phoebus and the county to the Virginia State Democratic Convention in Norfolk.

Harrisonburg.—Dr. E. J. Bulgin, noted Western evangelist, has begun his month's revival here and is attracting several thousand persons each night in the new tabernacle, which seats 4,000 persons. One of the features of the services is the choir of 150 voices chosen from the various choirs in the city.

Lynchburg.—Dr. Allen W. Porterfield, professor of German at Randolph-Macon Woman's College, has resigned to accept similar work at the University of West Virginia. His resignation here becomes effective July 1 next. Dr. Porterfield came here two years ago from Barnard College. He is a native of Berkley county, West Virginia.

Winchester.—Bound with ropes and shackles, a powerfully built man, who has been identified as Benjamin Smith 35 years old of Fauquier county, was landed in jail here to await commitment to a State hospital for the Insane, after he had held a sheriff's posse at bay for more than three hours in the southeastern part of Frederick county. He is said to be suffering from acute religious mania.

Blacksburg. — Captain Robert C. Macon, now on duty with the Fourth United States Infantry, at Fort Benning, Ga., has been ordered to report as assistant professor of military science and tactics of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute. Captain Macon has been a student at the infantry school at Fort Benning, and will proceed to the Virginia Polytechnic Institute as soon as his present course of study is completed.

Norfolk.—William H. Schmitt, of Rome, Italy, has been appointed by the government of Ecuador honorary vice-consul for the port of Hampton Roads.

Danville.—Ministers of the various churches in Danville and Schoolfield were the guests of the ministers of Leaksville, Draper and Spray. The Ministers' Association of the three cities recently tendered the invitation for the purpose of becoming better acquainted with the pastors here. Lunch was served at the Central Y. M. C. A. and Dr. Arthur J. Smith, a well-known Bible scholar and evangelist of New York, made an address.

Danville.—A horse was solemnly acquitted of violating the State anti liquor law in the Henry County Circuit Court at Martinsville. Informations had been filed against the animal, alleging that it was engaged in transporting liquor, and the case was called before Judge Turner Clement. A careful combing of the liquor statute by Thomas Whitehead, special prohibition prosecutor, failed to reveal any inhibition on horses transporting liquor, and after prolonged argument the hoss was acquitted. The State law, considered one of the most stringent of any in the United States, enumerates all kinds of vehicles, but the horse by itself is not included. The case is believed to be unique in Virginia court annals.

Staunton.—Pupils in Augusta County High School will pay tuition during the session of 1924-1925. The rate will be: first-year pupils, $1.00 per month; second-year pupils, $1.50; third-year pupils, $2.00; fourth-year pupils, $2.50 per month. School finances in this county are in a precarious condition. Faced with a deficit of $12,000 or cut expenses, the school board, in order to come out somewhere near even at the end of this session, has cut teachers' salaries, cut the length of the term in certain schools, and cut off some of the school wagons. It was found that the actual cost of high school instruction is $5.70 per pupil, while in the grades it is $1.90. Each figure represents the monthly cost.

Staunton.—Staunton has had its first "official" visit by the Ku Klux Klan. It occurred Sunday night, when about thirty white-robed men entered the West Main Street Methodist Church and presented the Rev. T. S. Bostick, the pastor, with an envelope containing $50 in bills. The Klansmen filed into the church while the choir and congregation were singing "Onward, Christian Soldiers." The Knights formed a semi-circle around the chancel, and the leader presented the envelope.

$4,598,824 Capitation Taxes Due.

Judges of the Corporation Courts for the cities and of the Circuit Courts for the counties have opportunity to aid in the collection of several millions of dollars due the State.

Incidentally, the collectors have an excellent chance to make quite a handsome thing of the office in case of their appointment. The law is that which relates to delinquent capitation taxes. Under the Constitution, this tax is not enforcible until it shall have been due at least three years. Then the collector can proceed and to reveal in cash, for there is due to the State—that is, since 1903 and up to 1921—$4,598,824.68.

The new law is one that was offered by Senator Parsons, of Grayson, a Republican, and allows for the compensation of the collectors, whose appointment is provided for by the general laws, and gives to the collectors for their time and services one-third of the entire amount so collected. In other words, were the collector in any county or city to collect as much as $3,000, he would be allowed to retain one-third of that sum. The balance has to be paid into the State treasury, one-third going to the counties and cities in which collected and two-thirds to the State.

This law is effective June 18, after which time, if the judge of any county or city desires to name a collector, he can do so and the collector can proceed to make the delinquents come across. That is not all; where a person is delinquent, the collector has the right to seize any and all property or money which person may have, having the right to levy on property and to drag the delinquents to court and to make them pay the costs of this litigation.

Youths Arrested By Dry Sleuths.

State prohibition forces charged down on the youth of the State the past week, they reported to Director Smith. Three boys under 17 were arrested and turned over to the local authorities. They are supposed to know the whereabouts of a number of older men believed to be operating stills and selling liquor. W. Lee Cooper, white, 15, of Rocky Mount; Lindsay Hill, white, 17, of Oaks, and Dane Clark, white, 17, of Ruffield, are the boys.

Four fifty-gallon stills, one 200 outfit and a 100-gallon copper distillery were taken by the officers. Jake Satterfield and Orlin Miller, both white, and several other men were arrested.

Many State Coal Mines Idle.

Drastic wage cuts have resulted in hundreds of miners in Southwest Virginia quitting work and going back to their farms; and the shutting down of nine mines belonging to the Virginia Iron, Coal and Coke Company automatically has thrown 900 additional men out of work.

The above information is contained in reports received by Commissioner of Labor Hall from Chief Mine Inspector Lucas. The mines are shutting down, Mr. Lucas wrote, because the price of coal had sunk to a point which made continued profitable operation impossible.

To Place Pageant Tickets On Sale.

The pageant, which has been written by Miss Lucile Burleigh, will be given at the City Auditorium under the general local committee of Mrs. Stuart Michaux and the proceeds will go toward the fund created by the association for the endowment of a chair of nursing at the University of Virginia.

RACIAL PURITY CAMPAIGN BEGINS

Anglo-Saxon Clubs Hear Instructive Talks

STRESS THE NEW STATUTE

Carry Forward Movement Now Established On Substantial Basis—Governor Enthusiast in Work.

Stimulated by instructive and inspiring addresses by Major Ernest A. Cox, prominent in military circles in the State; John Powell, musician, composer and sociologist, and Dr. W. T. Plecker, State registrar of vital statistics, Post No. 1, of the Anglo-Saxon Clubs of America entered enthusiastically upon a campaign which has for its objects impressing upon the people of Richmond the importance of the movement for the preservation of racial integrity and the significance of the new Virginia law bearing upon that subject. Colonel G. Percy Haven presided at the meeting, which was held in the Ladies' Temple.

"The new Virginia law," said Major Cox, "is the most perfect expression of the white ideal given to the world in 4,000 years, or since the caste of ancient India was made effective."

He traced the contact of the white race with the yellow, brown and black —Chinese, Malay, African and corruptions of those races through early centuries, and recended a note of warning against the influx of other blood into Anglo-Saxon veins.

Major Cox related the efforts made by white men in all civilized countries through various stages of the world's history to maintain the caste system of ancient India to preserve inviolate the integrity of that race, and told of similar effort by the Egyptians 1,900 years before Christ to stop the influx of African blood from the south, and the measures adopted by the French in two colonies 1,400 years after the dawn of the Christian era.

Many of the British possessions, he said, have laws designed to preserve racial integrity. There are laws in twenty-nine States of the Union against intermarriage of the races. Four States forbid whites and Indians to intermarry. Four other States have laws against the marriage of whites with Chinese.

Only Virginia, the speaker said, has "a law that approaches the expression of the white ideal." He referred to the law passed by the last General Assembly. This law is the result of a movement led by Judge Powell. Major Cox congratulated Virginia upon the adoption of the law and predicted that other States will follow the lead set by the Old Dominion. The speaker is now ripe for a country-wide movement, he said, exhorting the Anglo-Saxon club members to use their best endeavors to the end of spreading among their fellow citizens a knowledge of the significance of the new law and its importance to the race.

Mr. Powell spoke along the same lines, urging the members to carry forward the work which has been established by the act of Assembly on a substantial basis. Incidentally, Mr. Powell informed the club that he had been promised by Governor Trinkle with the pen used by the Governor in signaing th bill. He presented the interesting trophy to Post No. 1.

The Governor, Mr. Powell said, is very enthusiastic in the movement. His enthusiasm was demonstrated when he requested Dr. Plecker to request of the Governor of Virginia the privilege of being the first man to register under his new law. The Governor was invited to address the club but was prevented from being present by a previous engagement to speak in New York at a meeting in the interest of the Jefferson memorial.

At the conclusion of Mr. Powell's address, Post 1, on motion of Mr. Powell, adopted resolutions expressing the grateful appreciation of the body to the Governor for his interest in the movement.

Mr. Powell told of the wide interest in racial integrity manifested in many States. He mentioned letters on the subject coming to him from Oregon, California, Missouri, Mississippi and other States.

"The organization," he said amid applause, "is the one organization in the whole world now standing pledged to a work which means the salvation of the white race, the preservation of the blood integrity of the Anglo Saxon race."

Because of the press of other business, Post 1 deferred consideration of the report of Dr. Laverne T. Price, chairman of the national committee, and a discussion of the plans of the national committee until April 22, when a special meeting will be held for the purpose.

$400,000 Aid To Virginia Boys.

James Maede, who recently died in New Jersey, provided in his will for the establishment of a fund of approximately $400,000, the income from which is to be used to give a college education to Virginia boys who would not be able to obtain it otherwise, it was learned from George W. Kolner, Commissioner of Agriculture.

6 DARING TESTS

1 Lay a sample of Velcanite Slate Surfaced Roofing on a hot radiator for 12 hours. See if it will melt or dry out.

Years of scorching and baking in the sun will not affect Velcanite.

2 Now, lay the sample on ice for 12 hours. Then pour boiling water over it. See if the extreme sudden changes of temperature have affected its tough pliability.

Frost, sleet and temperature changes are not enemies of Velcanite.

3 Soak the sample in water for 12 hours. See if, by weight, it absorbs any water.

Cloudbursts or hours of pelting rain roll off Velcanite like water off a duck's back.

4 Immerse the sample in hydrochloric acid. See if it is affected in any way.

Smoke, coal or chlorine gas, acid or ammonia fumes do not harm genuine Velcanite.

5 Lay a burning ember on the sample. See if it sets the roofing on fire.

Live sparks, blazing embers on the roof will not set a Velcanite roof on fire.

6 Lay sample on the floor; scuff it hard with your shoe. See how little of the slate surfacing will come off.

No service could ever be so severe as this foot-scuffing test.

No other roofing is backed by such advertised tests. Don't take our word for it—prove Velcanite's quality for yourself. Call us today—

SEVERE CRAMPING SPELLS, PAINS IN BACK AND SIDES

"My trouble has been periodic cramping spells," says Mrs. C. C. Draper, of Atlanta, Texas. "For several years these have come on me so bad that I had to quit my work and go to bed. Every month I would stay in bed from one to two days. The pain in my back and sides were awful.

"This went on for several months after I was married until one time when I was having a bad spell, my husband suggested that I try Cardui. I said I would try it, so he got me a bottle at the store and I began to take it.

"It seemed like I improved from the very first dose. When I had taken one bottle I was very much better. I did not cramp so hard the next month and I ate and slept better. I was not nearly so nervous, either. I thought Cardui was fine, so I continued the treatment until I had taken five bottles, at which time I felt completely well. I had no more cramping spells at all, and my health was as good as anybody's. I am telling my friends what I give all the credit to Cardui, for I had been suffering for years before I took it."

Cardui is a vegetable extract, containing no harmful ingredients. It is made from mild-acting medicinal herbs with a gentle, tonic, strengthening effect upon certain female organs and upon the system in general. Its users have testified to its special value at the time of entering womanhood at maturity and at the time of the change of life.

For over 40 years, Cardui has been tested in use by thousands of women who have written to tell of the great benefit they have received from it. For over 600 years, medical authorities have recommended one of the principal ingredients of Cardui in the treatment of certain female complaints.

Cardui, the woman's tonic, tested by time, is today the product of many years of experience and investigation. It is manufactured in up-to-date laboratories by the most modern and sanitary methods of pharmaceutical science and is for sale by all druggists. J 93

AMOS AND HOSEA PLEADING FOR RIGHTEOUSNESS

(Temperance Lesson.)

LESSON TEXT—Amos 5:1-4; Hosea 4:1-3.

GOLDEN TEXT—Hate the evil, and love the good.—Amos 5:15.

PRIMARY TOPIC—How Daniel Became Strong.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Amos Denounces Sinful Luxuries and Sensuality.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—The Sins Denounced by Amos and Hosea.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Sins That Destroyed Israel.

The kingdom of Israel reached a high state of prosperity in the time of Jeroboam II., but with it came a condition of luxury, corruption and wickedness. Our lesson is a temperance lesson and applies to other things as well as intemperance in intoxicating liquor. Our age and nation are infatuated with pleasure, pursuit of gain and sinful conduct.

I. The Sins Which Ruined Israel (Amos 6:1-6).

1. Reckless Security (vv. 1,2). They were blind to the peril that surrounded them. They, like fools in a fool's paradise, closed their eyes to the approaching storm of judgment as predicted by Amos. They trusted in the mountains of Samaria for their protection. They closed their city at the entrances of Hamath as the dreams of a fanatic. The chief ones of the nation were puffed up with pride that they could be trusted to reassigns of the times. The light of history by damning the thought of impending judgment to bring near the seat of violence (v. 3).

2. Luxury (vv. 4-6). Periods of prosperity often were accompanied by corruption and luxury. The luxury of Samaria exposed in

(1) Extravagant Furniture (v. 4). They had beds of ivory, perhaps wood inlaid with ivory.

(2) Luxurious Living. They stretched themselves upon couches and living lives of indolence.

(3) Gluttony (v. 4). They ate the dainties out of season. This is what many pride themselves in. They buy what they desire regardless of what it costs. In many instances men and women are living in gluttony while others are destitute.

(4) Adorned their feasts with music (v. 5). They sang idle songs, even invented musical instruments for this purpose. They prostituted the noble art of music to their sensual feasts. How like the times in which we live.

(5) They drank wine (v. 6). They were not content with ordinary drinking vessels. They drank from bowls, indicating excessive drinking. They were so mastered by the intoxicating cup that their feasts, which were adorned with the refinements of music, ended in drunkenness.

2. Failure to Grieve for Joseph (v. 6). Joseph here stands for Ephraim and Manasseh, his two sons. Ephraim became the principal tribe of the northern kingdom, so Joseph is used as a synonym for, the nation. Many are indulging in influence luxury, entirely indifferent to the groanings of others. There is need of a modern Amos to thunder God's judgment upon all those who are living in luxury and who are at ease in Zion—the inevitable issue of such living, the prophet assured them, would be that they should go into captivity (v. 7) and their proud city be delivered up to their enemies (v. 8).

II. The Remedy Proposed (Hosea 6:1-6).

1. Turn Back to God (v. 1). The only way for sinning individuals and nations to escape the judgment of God is with heartbreaking sorrow to repent and return to God. Hosea assures them that though God had torn and smitten them He will heal and bind up if they repent.

2. Believe in His Power to Restore (v. 2). This power even extends to a national resurrection for Israel.

3. Obedience (v. 3). It is through the obedient walk and communication with the Lord that they were to know His forgiving mercy.

4. The Issue (vv. 3-6). Such penitence would make restoration absolutely certain. Grace is even more certain than the laws of nature. Just as showers result in fruitfulness in success, conformity with the righteous commands of the Lord will result in blessings from Him, for His supreme desire is not for man to bring offerings of sacrifice but to walk in the knowledge of God.

The Bondage of Fear

Like the solar-growing tuber is the Christian who lives in the darkness and bondage of fear. But out him go forth, with the liberty of God, into the light of love, and he will be like the plant in the field, healthy, robust, and joyful.—W. H. Beecher.

Think

The greatest events of a man are his best thoughts. It is the nature of thought to find its way into action. —Christian Cynosure.
